Click on the reference image on the upper left-hand corner of this page. Quickly, say the color you see in every word and not the word itself. Below, describe the challenges you had to overcome to say the color of the word, if any.

Date	Nickname	Other	Response
09/11/2018	April		It was a natural instinct to say the color and not the written word.
09/11/2018	Christine		I wanted to read the word instead of saying the color.
09/11/2018	Marsha Hopkins		It was confusing at first, but then I caught on!
09/11/2018	SUDS		This was a challenge for me. I had a hard time saying the color when it did not match the word.
09/11/2018	Tammy		I had trouble not saying the word instead of the color.

Here are some strategies that can be used to overcome challenges. Click on the reference media in the upper left-hand corner to review them. Explain, which strategy you connect the most with and why?

Date	Nickname	Other	Response
09/11/2018	April		I'm a perseverance kinda gal!:)
09/11/2018	Christine		practice makes perfect
09/11/2018	Marsha Hopkins		Collaboration is one way that I learn and grow. When I can get feedback and talk about challenges and problems that I encounter with another teacher, it helps me so much!
09/11/2018	SUDS		Embrace the Failure! This is a weekly experience when recreating the "wheel"
09/11/2018	Tammy		I connect with collaboration because I enjoy talking to others that are smarter than me.
